

GRACE IN METAL— 'Duet,' a bronze sculpture by Caryl Picker, will be one of the artist's works on display at College Misericordia's art gallery

Gallery to show NYC artist

The fall semester's major exhibition at College Misericordia's MacDonald Art Gallery, October 7 to November 4, will feature the expressive works of internationally-renowned New York City artist, Caryl Picker.

"Ms. Picker's bronze sculpture, collage and jewelry exhibit, entitled, 'Texture and Open Spaces,' adds new dimension to the history of the art gallery," said Brian Benedetti, director of the gallery.

"Emotional, philosophical, expressive, tactile — all fittingly define Caryl Picker's artistic works," he said.

According to Benedetti, Picker's work is "filled with personal style and symbolism."

Picker sees her recent interest in artistic jewelry as a natural progression of her sculpture. The artist's jewelry can be worn or enjoyed as a mounted piece of sculpture.

Locally, Picker has exhibited at the Waverly Invitational Art Show, the Doris Fordham Gallery in Clarks Summit and is represented in the university collection at Marywood College.

A gala opening reception introducing the artist and her work will be held in the MacDonald Art Gallery from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m., Saturday, October 6.

The artist will also be present in the gallery from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday, October 7.

Gallery hours are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 10 a.m.

p.m., 6-8 p.m.; Friday, 12-5 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, 1-5 p.m.; and closed Monday. For more information, call 674-6250.
